

PROGRAM - 02

DDMMYYYY
□□□□□□□□

Establish and link an EBS volume to a Linux installation.

Step 1: Sign in to the AWS Management console.

Step 2: Click on the EC2 service. select instances.

Step 3: Click on the Launch Instance button to create a new instance.

Step 4: Enter the name of the instance and select Amazon Linux AMI.

Step 5: Under instance type select free-tier eligible instance.

Click on create new key pair to generate the .pem file.

Step 6: Enter the name of the key pair and click create key pair. Now, .pem file is created and downloaded to the local computer.

Step 7: Network settings

Click on edit button to edit the network details as follows.

DDMMYY
□□□□□□

select the custom VPC which was created select the appropriate subnet select the security group which was assigned to VPC

step 8: Add required elastic block storages (EBS) under configure storage section. click on launch instance.

step 9: Now instance has been created successfully step 10: create new EBS storage and link the EBS with EC2 instance. (The availability zone for EBS and EC2 instance should be same)